

DE L'EUROPE
AMSTERDAM

A Century Of Perfecting The Art Of Exceeding Your Expectations

Originally built in 1896, De L'Europe is located in the heart of Amsterdam opposite Munt Tower, overlooking the Amstel River. Synonymous with refined taste and quiet elegance, De L'Europe is often referred to as the other "Royal Palace of Amsterdam", continuing to attract the city's power menagerie and an assortment of the world's most celebrated names. Fusing its sophisticated ambience and gracious service, the hotel's distinctive décor also sets it apart, surrounding visitors with original Dutch Masters paintings from the private collection of Alfred "Freddy" Heineken for the quintessential Amsterdam experience.

Rooms & Suites

De L'Europe proudly offers its discerning travelers a selection of seven unique and elegant styles amongst its 111 brand new rooms and suites– including Amsterdam's only six-bedroom signature suite with private wrap-around terrace overlooking the water. Iconic Dutch Masters paintings from the Rijksmuseum collection have been meticulously replicated to enhance the décor and individuality of each room. Contemporary amenities and classic design blend with luxurious comfort and the latest technology including an iPad, iPod docking station, Bose surround-sound system and complimentary high-speed internet access. The comfort of the divine COCO-MAT beds combined with Arabesco-Carrara marble bathrooms to create the ultimate escape for rest and relaxation and best-in-show amenities including the hotel's L'Eau De L'Europe fragrance and skincare line created by parfumeur Blaise Mautin.

Spa

The Fitness Center at De L'Europe lets the exercise enthusiast enjoy a wide range of state of the art equipments: a selection of free weights, stationary aerobic machines, and a heated indoor pool with breathtaking views of the Amstel River, await in the Fitness Centre, while unlimited steam and sauna further soothe the soul.

Restaurants & Bars

Bord'Eau

The jewel of De L'Europe's culinary scene. Twenty-first century fine dining in an exquisite salon-like setting. This intimate room, overlooking the Amstel presents a world of high style, enveloping diners with clear, sophisticated simplicity of French fare joint by detailed service with Dutch flair. For every special occasion Bord'Eau offers its private dining room for up to 12 guests which is surrounded by the 'Walls of Wines'.

Freddy's Bar

Named in honor of its most famous patron, Alfred Heineken, Freddy's Bar is an Amsterdam's Dutch brown bar frequented by Amsterdam's locals, high society, politicians and screen stars. Kick back and relax to the smooth sounds of a jazz pianist while nibbling on gourmet snacks. Freddy's is renowned for the city's best Bloody Mary, and is frequently nominated by reviewers as Amsterdam's finest hotel bar.

Fumoir

With a selection of the world's finest cigars, De L'Europe's fumoir offers an escape to a genteel era of smoking rooms and gentlemen's clubs.

Hoofdstad Brasserie

Comfortable, informal and open throughout the day. The brasserie, noted for its a la carte power breakfast crowd, has an open-kitchen with view of its chefs in action serving 'Amsterdam accented' modern French brasserie cooking.

Promenade

Surrounding guests with replicas of 17th-century Dutch Masters paintings; live music keeping guests entertained. The Promenade serves the city's most comprehensive list of old and new-world wines, perfectly mixed cocktails, a new take on themed Afternoon Tea service on custom fine bone china and a light menu of gourmet snacks.

Het Terras

A warm-weather dining destination where Euro chic riverside dining pairs with sumptuous updated Parisian-influenced café classics and seasonal local specialties. Enjoying a spectacular al fresco setting atop a charming open-air patio offers breathtaking views of Amsterdam's famous canals.

Les Caves De L'Europe

Head Sommelier Dannis Apeldoorn oversees the 1.000 wine selections in the hotel's private wine cellar, Les Caves De L'Europe. His dynamic wine program welcomes guests to enjoy tasting, tours and interactive seminars by appointment.

An easy 25-minute drive from Amsterdam's Schiphol International Airport, the hotel's central location makes it a top destination for discerning travelers.

Meetings & Events

A distinctive landmark for more than a century, De L'Europe is an ideal location for board meeting, conferences, weddings, social and cultural events. From luxurious events to casual gatherings on the terrace, all venues are well-appointed, infused with color and sumptuous furnishings. More than 600 square meters of venue space featuring state-of-the-art technology and unique décor, provoke the mind and spirit. The private dining and meeting rooms within the Dutch Masters Wing combine exquisite space with natural daylight and stunning views of the Amstel River, as well as separate entrances for discretion. Options are endless in a boutique environment topped with personalized service. Customized catering menus complement the glorious settings.

Spiegelkamer

The Spiegelkamer Room is named for the large mirrors adorning this room's interior. Overlooking the Amstel River, additional space is created via a connecting sliding door to an adjacent private bar with balcony.

Keizerskamer

Reminiscent of an historic Dutch library, the Keizerskamer Room faces Nieuwe Doelenstraat. Dark wooden bookshelves filled with translations from famous Dutch authors align the walls, reaching from the floor's genuine Dutch 'Delft's-blauw' carpet to its high ceiling.

Alfred H. Heinekenkamer

The Alfred H. Heinekenkamer Room overlooks the Amstel River and its design is inspired by the famous Heineken Beer colors: walls are painted in tonal green hues, the carpet and curtains are a subdued Heineken green. Old meets new: the room features a Heineken beer-tap, plus state-of-the-art-in-room technology.

Herenkamer

The iconic authentic Dutch brown bar residing in the new Herenkamer Room makes it De L'Europe's only room with a permanent bar. Wooden walls and ceilings create a cocoon for guests with golden pillars accentuating the warm colors of the surroundings. From product launches and presentations to wedding receptions, the space features two built-in screens to accommodate all viewpoints in the room.

Brouwerskamer

The Brouwerskamer Room is the official De L'Europe boardroom with a maximum capacity of 12 persons. The modern purple interior accentuates the twinkling handmade Venetian glass chandelier dominating the room. An oval glass table, high leather chairs and leather writing blocks provide five-star comfort and style.
